
Dr. Brian Bernick is a multidimensional healthcare executive and entrepreneur with 25+ years of clinical medicine experience coupled with a history of building a multi-billion-dollar U.S. pharmaceutical business.

Dr. Bernick, founded the women's health company, TherapeuticsMD®, and led from proof-of-concept to FDA approval of 3 drugs and subsequent commercialization along with the development of vitaCareSM Prescription Services – a pharmaceutical hub technology and services platform.

Dr. Bernick is the Chairman of the Board of Directors of Micron Biomedical, the world leader in dissolvable microarray patch technology designed to provide enhanced vaccine and therapeutic delivery, superior patient compliance, and simplified administration, distribution, and storage logistics. Dr. Bernick also leads BAB Life Sciences, a healthcare consulting firm providing a breadth of integrated services tailored to the individual needs of the customer including medical, strategy, funding, business and product development, M&A, compliance/regulatory, commercialization, manufacturing, talent and other.

Dr. Bernick earned a degree in economics at Northwestern University followed by a doctorate of medicine from Chicago Medical School and board certification in obstetrics and gynecology through Pennsylvania Hospital the University of Pennsylvania.

Dr. Bernick spent over 20 years in private practice in Boca Raton, Florida. During that time, he served as the Chairman of the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology at Boca Raton Regional Hospital and as an associate professor at Florida Atlantic University College of Medicine. Dr. Bernick is recognized by colleagues as the top 1% of obstetrics & gynecology practitioners with over 100 peer-reviewed publications and presentations of original research and over 70 US and foreign patents focusing on drug therapies and analysis.