

---

Peter Liebert, MD, MBA is an experienced pediatric surgical specialist with extensive clinical, administrative and organizational responsibilities as chief of his specialty division at two hospitals. He currently serves as a pediatric surgeon in Westchester County, NY and Fairfield County, CT. Past positions include Chief, Division of Pediatric Surgery, White Plains Hospital and Chief, Division of Pediatric Surgery, Stamford Hospital. He is currently Chief of Pediatric Surgery at Columbia-Presbyterian/Lawrence Hospital in Bronxville, NY. Dr. Liebert is the sole author of the textbook: Color Atlas of Pediatric Surgery and on the Editorial Board of the Journal of Pediatric Surgery.

With a BA in Biology (cum laude) from Princeton University, Dr. Liebert received his MD from Harvard Medical School, in addition to an MBA (with Honors) in Finance and Healthcare Management from the Hagan School of Iona College where he continues as an Adjunct Professor of Management.

He has served in numerous leadership positions over the years to include: President of the Westchester County Medical Society; Board Member of the Legislative Physician Advocacy Committee of the Medical Society of the State of New York; Chairman of the Finance Committee, Westchester County Medical Society and is an active member of the Westchester County and New York State Medical Societies.

Dr. Liebert has Public Health experience as a physician member of the Westchester County Board of Health and corporate experience as a director of the publicly traded Cadus Corporation, and ImClone Corporation. He has served as Chairman of the Board of RxVitamins, Inc., a privately held supplement company with world-wide distribution. In addition, he is a Director and Health Consultant for Mary Ann Liebert, Inc., Publishers.

His memberships include: Fellow, American College of Surgeons; Fellow, American Academy of Pediatrics; Charter Member, American Pediatric Surgical Association; Association for Academic Surgery; Juror, Scientific Awards Jury, Lasker Foundation for Medical Research; and Westchester County Board of Health where he has served as Chair, Nominating Committee.

Dr. Liebert's interests include collector cars, vintage auto racing, sailing, tennis, his children and two young grandsons.